

Birmingham

From the South

From the M42 take Junction 2 and then turn right at the roundabout at the top of the sliproad. Turn right at the first roundabout and go past the Hopwood pub. Carry on for approximately 2 miles, straight over the next roundabout, straight over the next roundabout – The Man in the Moon pub is on the roundabout. Carry on down the dual carriageway, straight over the next roundabout, the next roundabout is a small double one. Take the A4040 Watford Road which turns into Linden Road which in turn, turns into Oak Tree Lane. Go past the Selly Oak Hospital, at the traffic lights turn right into Bristol Road, go past Aldi supermarket, turn left at the large white pub called The Goose into Grange Road.

From the North

From the M6 take Junction 6 (A38 M towards City Centre and Bromsgrove). Stay on the A38 M for approximately 3 miles going through 3 tunnels, pass a petrol station and Bristol Street Motors. At the traffic lights continue straight on for approximately $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile to the next traffic lights. Continue straight on, past the fire station on your left. Continue over the next traffic lights, past Tesco. At the Goose Pub (just after the pedestrian crossing) turn right into Grange Road.
